AI at the Board Table – Rethinking Communication, Collaboration & Leadership

Artificial intelligence is reshaping the way boards think, communicate and decide. It raises new expectations about literacy, agility and leadership in the boardroom. What does it take for a board to truly engage with AI as a strategic topic? Dalith Steiger, Fredy Hasenmaile, Vidor Kapy and Aline Isoz bring insights from innovation, economics and governance to this interactive Peer Talk. Together with an experienced entrepreneur, they reflect on the risks and opportunities of using AI in decision-making, collaboration and positioning. Aline Isoz moderates the session and contributes her own perspective from working at the intersection of digital change and governance.
